

UNIVERSITY
OF WARSAW

9th EAHL Conference Warsaw
Young Scholars Workshop

Wednesday September 18, 2024

PROGRAMME

9:00-9:15 Welcome (plenary session): Prof. Steven Lierman (chair EAHL) and Dr. Mirko Dukovic

9:15-11:30 Panels (breakout sessions): the recommended duration of the presentations is 15'

11:30-12:00: Wrapping up (plenary session)

PANEL 1

Human Rights Approaches to Health

Chair: Prof. Tamara Hervey

- Fundamental rights as a method of inquiry: How did courts help shape the European Health Law?, Dr Mirko Đuković, Post-doctoral Research Fellow, European University Institute, Italy;
- The European healthcare system standard: legal framework, Zuzanna Zapotoczna, PhD Candidate, Jagiellonian University, Poland;
- Anonymous gamete donation as a human rights conflict, Jakub Valc, PhD Student, Masaryk University, Czech Republic;
- Improving medical decision-making within a super-diverse society in light of the right to culturally appropriate healthcare, Marta Łotoczuk, PhD Researcher, University of Antwerp, Belgium;

- How to forge the right to long-term care for the dependent elders? A critique of the European Care Strategy, Teresa Adreani, Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies, Italy.

PANEL 2

Data rights and healthcare

Chair: Prof. Santa Slokenberga

- Data for Discounts: Navigating Privacy Rights and Solidarity in Switzerland's Health Insurance Incentives, Dylan Hofmann, PhD student at the University of Neuchatel, Switzerland;
- Real World Data in the medicinal product lifecycle: in search of a balance between the right to safety and the right to innovation, Kaat Van Delm, PhD Researcher, Leuven Centre for Public Law, Belgium
- Fair enough? Exploring the role of fairness in secondary uses of health data in the European Health Data Space, Patricia Cervera de la Cruz (PhD Researcher) and Dr Mahsa Shabani (Associate Professor in Health Privacy Law), Ghent University, Belgium
- Health data sharing for research and innovation in Europe and France: legal issues for governing secondary use, Lisa Feriol, PhD student, University of Toulouse, France;
- Digital technology in developing human medicines: legal and ethical implications, Noémie Dubruel, PhD student, Institut Maurice Hauriou, Université de Toulouse II, Capitole & UMR 1295 CERPOP Inserm équipe BIOETHICS, Université de Toulouse III and Paul Sabatier, Toulouse, France.

PANEL 3

Medical practice and healthcare

Chair: Prof. Steven Lierman

- Self-determination and Accountability in Italy: balancing Informed Consent in Medical Treatment and Liability, Dr Stefania Pia Perrino, Postdoctoral Fellow, Università degli Studi di Milano – Bicocca, Italy;
- Should age determine the possibility of becoming a parent?, Marta Puścion, PhD student, University of Warsaw, Poland.

- Who decides your access to medical care? Prioritization of medical procedures – legal basis and the real-life, Jaana Kovalainen, Katariina Kilpivaara, PhD students, University of Lapland, and Oulu University Hospital, University of Oulu, Finland;
- Responsibility as a legal tool in the fight against non-communicable diseases, Félix Delerm, PhD candidate, University of Neuchatel, Switzerland;
- In search of a solid legal framework for qualitative healthcare services in hospitals, Cato Deprez, PhD researcher, KU Leuven, Belgium

PANEL 4

Regulating medical products

Chair: Prof. Annagrazia Altavilla

- Surveillance of software as medical devices, Astrid Pilottin, PhD student, University of Neuchâtel, Switzerland;
- Automated decision-making systems in precision medicine, Sarah de Heer, PhD student, Lund University, Sweden;
- EU Medical Device Regulation – the level of convergence and impact on regulatory complexity, Nika Gavrilović Janković, PhD student, University of Ljubljana, Slovenija;
- Legal Innovations and the Future of Drug Repurposing in the European Union, Joanna Belowska, Independent Researcher, Institute of Law Studies of the Polish Academy of Sciences, Poland;
- Regulations on the use of medicines outside Marketing Authorization in the European Union, and how they can help access novel treatments to patients in need, Miguel Díaz Hernández, Doctoral Researcher, University of Helsinki, Finland;

PANEL 5

Emerging technologies regulation and healthcare

Chair: Prof. Magdalena Flatscher-Thöni

- Legal governance of emerging health technologies from a human rights perspective, Renee Dekker, PhD student, University of Twente, the Netherlands;

- A prospective legal framework for brain organoids, embryoids and chimeras, Adrien Bottacci, Phd Student, Aix-Marseille Université, France;
- In search of legally binding standards in EU evidence-based policy-making – reestablishing free movement after lockdowns in the EU Digital Covid Certificates regulations, Danaja Fabčič Povše, Belgium;
- Green hospitals in Poland as an example of sustainable healthcare, Karolina Wierzbicka, University of Lodz, Poland.

PANEL 6

Challenges in Artificial Intelligence Regulation and Healthcare

Chair: Prof. Joaquin Cayon De Las Cuevas

- Addressing algorithmic discrimination in healthcare through an intersectional lens – the EU perspective, M.A. Wojcik-Suffia, PhD Candidate, University of Bologna, Italy;
- Protection of fundamental rights and Artificial Intelligence in health: a comparative analysis of the impact assessment as a legal tool, Sara Ruiz-González, Legal Adviser at the Ministry of Health of Cantabria and Predoctoral researcher at IDIVAL-University of Cantabria, Spain;
- Regulating AI Transparency in Healthcare, Marie Kohoutova, PhD Candidate, Charles University, Czech Republic;
- Protecting patient integrity: challenges and benefits with informed consent in AI-assisted diagnoses, Marika Mäkinen, PhD Student, Lund University, Sweden;
- Informed consent and the utilization of artificial intelligence in the delivery of healthcare, Monika Kupis, PhD Candidate, Jagiellonian University, Poland.